Story

Note:
For simplicity's sake,
Places were only connected to their corresponding view
once.
