Back-end Services

BE services	Service Description	Resource Description
Authentication Service	This service allows the user to register and log in into the app (system).	User authentication data
Products Service	This service gives information regarding the details of the app's products, and the products saved on the user's product list, also allowing users to add products to that list.	Product information
Supermarket Service	This service gives information regarding supermarkets and their information.	Supermarket information
Feedback Service	This service allows users to see and provide feedback on products.	Feedback information
News Service	This service allows users to see information regarding animal related news.	News information
Statistics Service	This service allows users to check statistical information regarding meat-related environmental context.	Statistical information